

ANSWERS

ANSWERS

1. The International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) Red List, founded in 1963
2. Bees, coral reefs, elephants, giraffes, insects, whales, orangutans and not forgetting the many plants
3. 6th Mass Extinction
4. Bontebok, Cape Mountain Zebra, African Lion, Badger Friendly Honey Programme, livestock guarding dogs and biodiversity stewardship schemes
5. 50th Earth Day
6. Rachel Carson
7. Human activity, climate change, habitat change, use of pesticides and herbicides, irreversible conversion of natural vegetation for infrastructure development, urban expansion, crop cultivation, timber plantations and mines; invasive alien plant species; habitat degradation, livestock over-grazing, pollution.
8. The South African National Biodiversity Institute
9. One in four plants (25%)
10. Democratic, holistic, sustainable, compassionate, natural, regenerative, wise, balanced, inter-dependent

RIGHT: PUBLISHED ARTICLE ANSWERS, SENTINEL NEWSPAPER, FRIDAY 3 MAY 2019

